Parish News

The next APCM will be on Sunday 23rd May following straight after the morning united service at St Richard's church. Copies of the report will be available in both churches today, so please take a copy to read and remember to bring it with you next week. Please note there will not be any refreshments at the meeting, so it is suggested that you bring a bottle of water with you.

Remember to book your places

Thy Kingdom Come : Prayer journals and booklets

Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer movement which the Archbishop of Canterbury has invited people to join. We are asked to pray that others will come to know Jesus Christ, in particular 5 people whom we know.

This year takes place between Ascension Day and Pentecost: May 13th - May 23rd. To help us, there is a Prayer Journal with a bookmark or a booklet based on the Psalms. Each day there is a different theme to help us to pray for the 5 people we are thinking of.

Feel free to take a booklet from Church - or more copies if you would like to give to those you know who aren't here today. If you have any queries please contact Dominic or Mary

PLEASE TAKE THIS SHEET AWAY WITH YOU OR IT WILL BE DESTROYED!
